

“London Bridge” Challenge

Objective:

This is not a timed event. When the competitor is staged and ready at the 15-yard line (pistol loaded and holstered), while facing down range, they will draw their weapon from the holster and place it on the ground, muzzle facing the targets (down range). Once the competitor has done that, they will get on the ground, laying on their back, head towards the targets (down range), and feet facing up range. Once the competitor is ready, they will retrieve their pistol, then arch their back in the air so the only thing touching the ground is their head/shoulders and feet. Once the competitor is in the “London Bridge” position they will engage the 8” steel target (orange) with 1 round, the 10” steel target (green) with 1 round, and the silhouette steel target (pink) with 1 round. To successfully pass this challenge, the competitor and the challenger(s) must complete the tasks in the allotted time frame.

IMPORTANT: Once the shooter goes to the ground their head should be facing downrange (towards the targets). Since everyone’s body type is different and this challenge utilizes unconventional shooting techniques, body position and movement while on the ground is dependent on the shooter, but a large majority of their back should be elevated from the ground.
